

ECG

AND PHARMACOLOGY

6 CME CREDIT HOURS OFFERED

Course Highlights:

Learn the basics of the principles of Electrocardiogram (ECG), designed to assist health care providers in obtaining, reviewing and make decisions based on a comprehensive review of clients ECG. Emphasizes on the proper use of pharmacology to treat and manage dysrhythmias.

Accreditation:

The course is approved by the American Heart Association & Institute and Dubai Corporation of Ambulance Services.

Contents:

- Review of Systems.
- ECG measurements.
- Integration of drugs into ACLS algorithms.
- Concept Maps for Normal and Abnormal ECG readings.
- Basic electrophysiology.
- Basic ACLS drug, usage, dose and routes.

Target Audience:

The course is designed for License and Certified Health Care Providers such as Doctors, Nurses, Paramedics, Physical Therapist and other licensed health professionals.

COURSE DETAILS:

When:

Minimum of 6 in a group

-Open dates

Individual Participants

-Every Tuesdays

Where:

Group of 6 participants

-May be conducted in your premises

Individual Participants

-ITC Training Lab G-01, Sheikh Rashid Building- Al Ittihad Road

Hor Al Anz East – (Near Al Qiyadah Metro St.), Dubai

Time:

8:00am to 3:00pm

THE COURSE WILL PROVIDE:

Study Materials (Book and Handout) and a Certificate with CME.

Note: Study Materials will be given 2 to 3 weeks prior the course to allow sufficient time for review.

Non-refundable fee prior to 30 days of the course,
10% administrative charges will be deducted for earlier refund for the prices & other inquiries contact us through

TEL : +9714 2527560

MOBILE : +9715 63012057

info@itc-dubai.com

www.itc-dubai.com

facebook.com/itcdubai